

Is your dog looking bored these days?
Come learn about all the fun activities offered for you and your pup!

You're invited to an AKC Canine Experience

Hosted by the Piedmont Kennel Club in cooperation with North Carolina Federation of Dog Clubs

Saturday, March 12, 2011

at

PKC Showplace
13607 Choate Circle
Charlotte, NC

LEARN ABOUT AKC EVENTS!

- Handling classes
- Grooming demonstrations
- AKC Dog Show Procedures and Entry Assistance
 - Find out about fun things to do with your dog
 - Obedience and Rally Fun Match
- Practice your newly learned skills and participate in a match show

LEARN ABOUT AKC DOG CLUBS

- Meet the Clubs
- Canine Good Citizen Testing
- Meet experienced responsible dog owners, trainers and handlers

LEARN ABOUT DOG CARE

- Grooming tips
- Training tips

Come for the fun activities!
(free unless otherwise indicated)

New Exhibitor Orientation throughout the day

10AM-NOON

Registration for conformation match

10AM-12:30PM

Handling and Grooming clinics

10AM-1PM

Canine Good Citizen Testing—$10/dog

10-3PM

Rally and Obedience Show and Go—$5/dog

1PM

Conformation Judging Starts with Junior Showmanship* (free) and then breed classes-$10/dog

Directions:

From I-77 North or South, take the Carowinds Blvd., SC Exit # 90. Go west, toward Carowinds Theme Park. Turn left onto Choate Circle, at the 3rd traffic light (wooden roller coaster on the right, TJ Maxx sign on the left). Piedmont Kennel Club is approximately 2 miles out Choate Circle on the right.! <http://www.pkc.org/directions.html>

Bring the whole family and your dog (at least three months of age with current vaccinations), AKC registration, Canine Partners listing or PAL/ILP number (if available), dog lead, water, bowl and crate. *Kids as young as 8 years old can take part in Jr. Showmanship.

For more information, please contact:

J.N. (Kim) Blutreich 704-282-4947 or Bravo-Dogs@Carolina.rr.com