President's Message

Wow...what a great turnout for our June meeting and I was not even there to witness it. Let's keep this up. As you know, we are not having a July meeting but will resume our meetings in August. We have a new meeting place and I would like to thank everyone who had a hand in finding it. I haven't visited the Holiday Inn yet, but hopefully it will be as good as the Doubletree. Your Board and Officers will be holding a working board meeting soon. If there are any members interested in being a committee chair or being on a committee, please let me know. One committee that you might be interested in is the "Programs Committee". This committee will be responsible for our programs at our monthly meetings. There will also be several other committees that the board will be looking at. We will also be planning our "Fall Fun Day" soon and if there are any events you would like to see us have at that, please let someone know. I hope to see everyone in August at the Holiday Inn.

Alice Alford, President

No July Monthly Business Meeting Scheduled

The board decided that there will be no monthly business meeting for the month of July.

Our next scheduled business meeting will be Tuesday, August 3rd.

Please note that we are meeting in a NEW location. We will now hold our meetings at the Holiday Inn Northlake, located at 2158 Ranchwood Dr NE, Atlanta 30345.

The Holiday Inn is just 1 block from our previous locale. Exit Lavista Road, turn inside the 285 loop, go 2/10 of a mile and make a right onto Ranchwood. The hotel will be on the left.

Have a wonderful 4th of July holiday and see you in August!

Letters To The Editor

Dear Readers,
 I would like to make a correction to last month's Brags posted in the Cavalier Chronicle.
 I mistakenly reported the brag of Marlene Anderson's Jackie under Maureen Miles! My deepest apologies to Marlene! I have corrected the brag and it is in this issue of the Chronicle!
 Sharon

the Chronicle? It can be Cavalier related, breeding related, showing related and even just GENERAL GOOD READING related!

Send me the title, author (all that pertinent info) and a few sentences why you recommend it!

I will publish it in next month's newsletter and perhaps we can get a nice summer time reading list compiled (no test at the end of summer!)

Thanks for your input!
 Sharon

To our Readers:
 It is summer time and that usually means for the school aged / college aged a summer time reading list!

Breeder Spotlight— Pied Piper Cavaliers / Maureen Miles

This month we spotlight Maureen Miles & Pied Piper Cavaliers!

Pied Piper Cavaliers came into the scene by recalling the Hamelin hero who took the rats to the river with the promise of gold pieces from the mayor. Unfortunately, the mayor backed out on his word and the piper subsequently took the town's children to the river. Rather harsh, but our kennel stands for honesty, integrity and loyalty.

My daughter and I began our love of cavaliers around 1980 having purchased a cavalier girl which we brought over from England in 1982. She was from a backyard breeder in Oxford, as we didn't know any better back then. "Poppy" was a very sweet girl, but aren't they all? Poppy died suddenly at age 4 from what we now suspect as Mitra Valve Disease.

After 5 golden retrievers over the next several years and my daughter going to college, I decided to return to the sweet little cavalier. I obtained Charlotte, a sweet tri from the Brookhaven kennel. Charlotte lived to be 12 years old. Then came Aria, (my daughter was a music major) followed by Jacob from Mike Hatter of IvyLane. Jacob proved to be quite the boy. He was not used at stud until he was 2 years old and has made up for it ever since producing many AKC champions! Jacob holds both AKC and other championships and enjoyed the show ring. Now at 11 years of age, he is retired and enjoying his social security benefits. He was last shown in the Veteran Class at the National Show in Orlando this past April, where he won his class. I am proud to say that Jacob is still heart clear. I remember showing Jacob to British Judge Judy Wright when he was 2 and she awarded him RBS. A few years ago, I showed Jacob to Judy in the Veterans class. She was delighted to see him so fit and thanked me for brining him. I enjoy my cavaliers and rotate who gets to sleep on the bed with me these days.

Molly, my 9 year old Pas-cavale girl, is the matron in this household and continues to bark when I am on the phone. She has a very unique personality and she is my soul mate in female form. Molly has produced several nice litters and is an AKC champion.

I am now at a point where I will keep my cavaliers into their golden years and enjoy every one of them. Tobias and Tabitha (the twins) are quite the pair, so different in personalities. Tabitha belongs to another breeder and Judge, Vanessa Weber in CT, but has been on a long vacation with me. The dogs are so much a part of my life these days and I recommend anyone to get more than two, if for no other reason to see the different personalities. I have enjoyed showing and many times winning at various dog shows.

Health testing is paramount for this breed and more so if you plan to have any litters. Enjoy your Cavaliers for they bring so many smiles to you every day!

2010/2011 Committees

Have you thought about participating on one of our committees or even chairing or co-chairing a committee?

Specialty Judges are picked up at the airport, taken to the hotel and taken out about the town to sightsee or dine?

There are several committees that you could serve on for the club for 2010/2011!

The board will shortly be holding a working board meeting to discuss all the open committees and who would like to volunteer to fill positions.

The Specialty Show requires several hands to accomplish the work that needs to be done.

If you are interested or want more information on specific committees, contact Alice Alford for more details.

Are you good at lining up interesting speakers for our monthly business meeting?

This is a great way to make an impact on the club and get involved!

Natural Remedies: Toxic Foods for Dogs

What is safe and healthy for a dog to eat? Certain food items are actually toxic to dogs and can result in a whole host of symptoms and ultimately to death.

People food is safe for dogs, right? Think again. While feeding dogs table scraps and leftovers may seem like a good way to cut back on food waste, there are several foods that should never be fed to your dog. Because dogs metabolize food differently from humans, they can suffer from severe reactions after consuming foods that may be harmless to us.

What Makes Food Toxic?

Before analyzing the culprits, it's important to come to a better understanding of just what the term 'toxic foods' means. Toxic foods may not cause death. The term toxic refers to foods that are harmful and poisonous, but keep in mind that the dog's reaction will vary with the amount of substance consumed, the size of the dog, the breed of dog, and the amount of time that has elapsed since consumption. These substances do have the potential to kill if eaten in large doses, but small amounts may only result in the animal exhibiting a few more minor symptoms.

It's also important to realize that foods can be toxic for a variety of different reasons. The reaction could be caused by the chemical make-up of the food itself, or the symptoms could be caused by inadequate preparation of the food.

Common Symptoms of Food Toxicity

While the symptoms of food toxicity can be many and varied, there are a few more common symptoms to watch for. Common symptoms may include, but are not limited to, difficulty breathing, dilated pupils, muscle spasms, seizures, lethargy, vomiting, diarrhea, elevated heart rate, and increased urination. Again, it's important to remember that the appearance of the symptoms and their severity will vary greatly depending on many factors, and the sooner the situation is dealt with the better. If there is any doubt, contact your local veterinarian. The ASPCA also has an animal poison control hotline that can be helpful in an emergency.

Known Toxic Foods

This list is by no means exhaustive, but the following is a list of the more common known toxic foods.

- Alcohol: Any kind of narcotic can be lethal to dogs. They can 'overdose' just the same as humans can, but with their lower body mass it takes much less alcohol to reach that level.
- Avocado: The fruit, seeds, and bark of this plant contain a substance called Persin which can cause a whole host of negative symptoms.
- Bones: Tiny fish bones and chicken bones can become health hazards by sticking into and obstructing the digestive tract, or in some cases puncturing the digestive lining.
- Cat food: This contains a higher level of both protein and fat, and is not beneficial for dogs in large quantities.
- Chocolate, Coffee, and Tea: Any kind of caffeine product in general is not a good idea. A compound found in these products called theobromine stimulates the heart and nervous system, and can be fatal. With chocolate, the darker the variety, the greater the danger. Also keep in mind that the high fat content of chocolate is not good for dogs.
- Dairy: Some animals do not have enough lactase in their systems to adequately digest the lactose found in dairy products and may develop diarrhea.
- Eggs: The presence of an enzyme called avidin causes a reduction of the absorption of biotin, which can result in shin and coat problems for dogs. Raw eggs may also contain Salmonella and E. coli.
- Fatty Foods: Too much fatty food can lead to pancreatitis.
- Grapes and Raisins: These contain an unknown toxin that damages the kidneys and can ultimately lead to kidney failure.
- Liver: Feeding in large amounts can cause Vitamin A toxicity which will affect the muscles and bones.
- Macadamia Nuts: The macadamia tree as well as the fruit contains an unknown toxin that can adversely affect the nervous and digestive systems. Macadamia nuts also contain high levels of phosphorus which can cause bladder stones.
- Mushrooms: Some varieties can be toxic to dogs, so it's best to avoid them altogether.
- Nutmeg: Too much of this spice can negatively impact a dog's health.

- Onions: Onions contain sulfides and disulfides, particularly thiosulfate, which can damage red blood cells. Excessive consumption can lead to severe anemia and death.

- Sugary Foods: When consumed in excess, these can lead to obesity and dental issues.

- Xylitol: This substance stimulates insulin release which can ultimately lead to liver failure.

Yeast Doughs: Any kind of raw yeasty dough consumed by a dog will ferment in the stomach, which may lead to alcohol toxicity. In addition to this, the yeast's expansion in the stomach can cause gas, abdominal discomfort, and even ruptured intestines.

How to Prevent Access to Toxic Foods

The first step, of course, is to know just what your pet should avoid. Keeping oneself well-informed may mean the difference between life or death for your dog. Once you're aware of the potentially harmful substances, the next step is to take measures to restrict and ideally completely prevent the animal's access to these substances. Keep dangerous foods away from areas the dog may be able to reach. Keeping your garbage out of reach is also important.

Be aware of food items that may contain these substances. Onion may be present in a certain food you think might be harmless to your pet, or perhaps macadamia nuts are present in an entrée. Make sure the food is completely free from potentially toxic substances before feeding it to your dog.

And finally, make sure you have a plan in case the unthinkable happens. Keep numbers handy to call in case of an emergency, and don't hesitate to call, even if it turns out to be a false alarm.

Thanks to Mark Fitchpatrick for another great article on a natural remedy to use!

.."make sure you have a plan in case the unthinkable happens. Keep numbers handy to call in case of an emergency".."

The Results are in from the CC Survey!

Thanks to every who participated in our CC survey!

It seems as if our cavalier's eyes have it! Over half indicated that we simply cannot resist our cavie's beautiful, loving eyes! Coming in second was the cuddling we receive from our babies.

And I knew there was a reason I nicknamed my boy Finn "Barky McFinnigan". About one third responded that their cavies worst habit is barking! However, snoring and being greedy tied for second.

And the comments were wonderful! I LMAO when I read about the worm expedition on the walks! My Skye does the same thing!

How quirky are our cavaliers? Well, the majority agree that climbing on the furniture like a cat wins! Next is the cavalier "obsession factor". And again, the comments were priceless! Can't you see your cavalier doing these things? Well, maybe not the Blue Tic Hound, but I definitely see all these habits in my boys! As quirky as they may be, they ain't afraid of the BIG DOGS! And they don't mind grooming! The majority responded that their cavie ain't afraid of NUTHIN'! But, let a thunder storm come round and over a third stated our brave cavies turn into babies. Well, we will let that one pass, because even grown ups can be afraid of thunder boomers too!

Lastly, almost 100% of our cavies are NOT on a raw diet!

Do you have a suggestion for a survey? Email Sharon and let me know! Maybe we can create something!

We are a sanctioned breed specialty club and licensed by the AKC to conduct dog shows and matches. We maintain membership in the American Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club, the ACKCSC, which is the AKC Parent Club for the breed. The purpose of our Club is to protect and advance the interests of the breed by promoting quality breeding, sportsmanlike competition, and the education of both its members and the general public.

Our members range from experienced show competitors and breeders to first time pet owners, and we are the second Cavalier King Charles Spaniel local specialty breed club to become licensed by the American Kennel Club.

Editor's Note

I really find it difficult to comprehend how time flies.

It just seems as if we held our Specialty Show (which was February) and here it is JUNE. The year is half way behind us!

In just 7 months, our club will be celebrating our 10th annual specialty, banquet and auction. What a milestone in our club history.

You will begin to see the planning that needs to be done prior to the show—from the actual specialty, the trophies, the ribbons, the banquet, hotel accommodations, the auction item gathering, providing judges with transportation and activities during their stay...you name it, it has to be planned, advertised, gathered and worked on. All this requires hands. Hands we hope you are willing to volunteer to make our 10th annual specialty, well, special!

If you would like to volunteer for a committee, be a committee chair or assistant chair or can help out the day of the show, please contact Alice Alford.

It is rewarding to volunteer and fun. We have a lot of members and hope that YOU can lend a hand this year. Consider participating!

On another note, there is a timely article on toxic foods in this issue. It is good to review what can make our cavaliers sick or even poisoned. Poisoning can lead to death if not treated. From a personal perspective, watch what is in your fenced in yard. We spent a late afternoon at the emergency vet (and $250) to learn that Skye had eaten something and was experiencing food poisoning. Literally three minutes after being outside, he began to vomit every 5 minutes and became lethargic. Then 30 minutes into the vomiting came violent diarrhea. Off to the emergency clinic! Undetermined what caused it—it could be grass near the house that the Orkin man treated over a week prior to the event—he still suffered poisoning, could have went into shock or become dehydrated. If your cavaliers love to graze on grass like ours do, keep an eye out and make sure they don't eat something unexpected!

Until next month,

Sharon Onorato Utych
